>Alice was frozen as she stared at Bella in shock, she did not realize that she could get Bella Pregnant; then again the amount of times they have been fucking it would be no surprise that Bella would be pregnant eventually but the fact of a vampire getting another vampire pregnant was surprising.

Carlisle too was shocked by the revelation of Bella being pregnant and soon all the Cullen family were talking about Bella and Alice's child, Alice was still in shock and Bella was starting to become afraid now, afraid that she would lose Alice.

Esme watched as Bella became saddened at how Alice's lack of excitement over the prospects over having a family together, Alice was breaking Bella's heart without even trying.

One day Bella was sitting in both her and Alice's cabin alone when Esme decided enough was enough, she may not have been Alice's biological mother but she loved her like she was her daughter so she dragged Alice from the main room of the house and outside.

"Now you listen here Alice Cullen, right now the girl who loves you is over there with her heart in pieces" Esme said in full swing and Alice went to stop her but she was cut off by Esme in full rant mode "She gave up her life for you, she became a vampire to be with you forever and this is how you react when she gives you the greatest gift anyone can ask for... the ability to raise a family!" Alice looked ashamed.

"I know, I am happyâ€¦ it's just that, I am not sure I can be a good mother" Alice said afraid and Esme slapped her over the back of the head "Now you listen Alice, every parent is the same when they start offâ€¦ sure you will make mistakes but you learn from them" she said and Alice smiled kissing Esme's cheek "Thanksâ€¦ mom" she replied before going off towards the cabin to talk to Bella.

Esme smiled bright as she watched Alice disappear back into the cabin and Esme went back to the main house.

Alice and Bella stood in silence as Alice tried to formulate words to express how sorry she was for not reacting to the news, Bella though just hugged her tight and Alice hugged her back tight whispering deep "I love you Bella" she whispered.

"I love you too Alice" Bella whispered and soon their lips met in a deep and powerful kiss and Bella moaned into the kiss as Alice caressed her, this time there was no hungry animalistic growls, no biting or clawingâ€¦ this was soft and gentle, tender loving between the lovers.

Bella stripped Alice's clothes off and Alice did the same, making sure they were both totally naked, Alice laid Bella down and hovered above her slowly and Bella smiled as she wrapped her arms around her lover and soon she felt Alice's huge girl cock enter her, gasping loudly Bella moaned and clenched her muscles tight, her inner walls wrapping themselves around Alice's cock.

"Oh fuck" Bella hissed as Alice moved slowly inside her; in and out going deep as she can.

Bella moaned softly as Alice continued her movements with precise moments, no longer wanting it to be rough anymore, Alice wanted to be gentle as Bella was carrying their child.

Bella kissed her deep as they continued to kiss and suck at each other's necks and soon Bella suck her fangs in and Alice moaned loudly as she picked up the pace and began to thrust deeper into Bella, their grunts and moans echoing around the cabin as they continued to make love.

Alice felt herself begin to swell up and soon she shuddered as Bella clamped around her and unleashed a heavy load of cum all over her, Alice was not far behind as she fired her hot cum deep inside Bella, once they were finished Alice wrapped them up in a blanket and smiled.

"I love you so much Bella" she whispered.

"I love you too Aliceâ€¦ so much" she whispered and they held each other all night.
